

VACANCY: INTERN STRATEGY CONSULTING (m/f/d)

About Maxbridge

Maxbridge is a Munich-based advisory firm active in the areas of strategy, commercial due diligence, and value creation. Unlike most other consulting firms, Maxbridge relies on independent professionals rather than on own employees for the sake of being more agile as well as more cost-efficient. With its select network of currently ~20 high-caliber independent professionals, Maxbridge aims to deliver to its clients highest quality advisory services at very affordable rates.

Who we are looking for

You want to sharpen your skillset? You want to experience the world of strategy consulting? You want to contribute to the growth of a young player in the market? Then Maxbridge might be the right place for you.

We are looking for strategy consulting interns with the following traits:

- Ongoing or completed Bachelor's or Master's degree in business, finance, or more "exotic" fields such as law, physics, medicine, chemistry, biology
- Ideally first practical experience from consulting or other relevant internships
- Solid MS Excel and PowerPoint skills
- Hands-on mentality and strong willingness to learn
- Fluency in German and English

What we offer

Once you become part of the pool of independent professionals, you will receive select invitations to work on Maxbridge projects. In those projects, we are offering the following:

- Active participation in the corporate development of Maxbridge
- Collaboration on exciting and challenging projects
- Work from anywhere (although time zone synchronicity may be required for some projects)
- Competitive remuneration

Contact

If the above sparked your interest, please send your CV to hr@maxbridge.de. We do not require a motivational letter.
